Rules

These shows are run under the rules of AQHA / PHAA / HSAA as applicable.

Horse Registration / Membership

Horses entered in all halter events must be registered with their relevant breed association. Proof of registration must be available upon request. No PR registered horses are accepted in halter classes as per the AQHA rule book. Horses entered in any performance ridden event must be registered with their relevant breed society.

Proof of registration must be available upon request. Unregistered horses can only be shown in beginner classes.

Amateur / Select Amateur Members

Current Amateur permits from your respective association must be available upon request. Competitors cannot compete in both Amateur and Select Amateur in the same class. Any person competing in the Novice Amateur classes must have a current Novice Amateur ticket with their relevant breed organisation and the rules for gaining that novice ticket must be similar to the AQHA. CCQHA is currently accepting AQHA, PHAA and AAA Novice Amateur tickets.

Youth Competitors

Youth age to be taken from 1st August. All youth competitors or taking part in an AQHA event must have written permission from their parent/guardian to be at that event as contestant or participant and in the case of a contest, the parent/guardian must also sign the entry form. All youth competing and taking part in an AQHA approved event, must be in the care of a responsible adult who is in attendance for the duration of that event, whilst the youth attends that event.

Beginner Competitors

A beginner youth or adult competitor is new to western events and may stay in this class until they feel confident to progress. A beginner youth or adult competitor must progress beyond beginner if they satisfy the following criteria: They have won a high point end of year award. Have won any performance even in open, amateur or Youth class at any A, AA or equivalent show where there were three or more entrants in the class. After a beginner youth or adult as obtained wins as detailed above, they are no longer eligible to participate in beginner classes in subsequent years at CCQHA however they may continue to show in beginner classes until the end of the point's year. Notwithstanding the above, the CCQHA committee reserves the right to use their discretion in determining the beginner status of any competitor. Beginners may compete on any breed of horse (registered or unregistered) in any equipment that is not prohibited, and their attire is to be neat and clean.

Helmets are encouraged.

Beginner riders can ride 'two handed' regardless of the age of the horse or type of bit used. Beginner riders are not to compete on colts or stallions

Class Rules

Any handler/rider entering the arena without the correct number will not be judged. Classes may be run together if there are insufficient entries (in accordance with AQHA rules). The Committee reserves the right to change the order of events before or during the show. It is the responsibility of the competitor to be aware of any changes.

Show Rules

No alcohol is allowed in, or can be consumed in the marshalling areas, working areas or show pens/contest areas. The use of training gear is not permitted in the marshalling area one hour prior to the start time. The Committee, its affiliates and sponsors will not be held responsible for any injury incurred, damage to or loss of goods. All competitors compete at their own risk. Cruel or inhumane treatment towards any and all horses will not be tolerated. Show management reserves the right to suspend from the show or cancel club membership of any persons the committee deem not adhering to these rules. There will be a disputes committee consisting of the Show Manager, One Committee Member and one Contestant.

Entries

Ensure that your entry forms are filled out correctly with membership numbers and horse registration numbers or points cannot be allocated to your breed society. Correct entry completion is your responsibility, not the clubs. You must be a financial member of the CCQHA to be eligible for end of year high points. If you are not a financial member of the CCQHA you must pay a day membership to cover insurance (unless you are a financial member of the AQHA). Proof of membership required

Refund Policy

No show, no advice to the Club – forfeit entries. If you advise the Club prior to the show commencing, there are two options;

1. Refund of entries minus $20 for Admin/Nominate Fees per horse & rider combination.
2. Transfer entries to next CCQHA Show.
